Additional Information to help us ensure a good week for you at Red Bird

Red Bird is a challenging physical, emotional, spiritual, and community experience. We work hard. It is often hot. It is an experience that will carry you out of your comfort zone.

We share sleeping quarters and bunk beds with each other and some days of Red Bird have a fair amount of riding in vans to get to destinations.

In order for us to help you have the best Red Bird experience possible we ask you to answer the following questions.

- Do you have dietary needs/limitations?

Gluten Free Vegetarian Vegan Other

- Do you have physical limitations that would affect your work or cabin assignments?

- Are you taking over the counter or prescription medications?

Special note to parents and team leaders. Should a Red Bird participant who is a minor need assistance or supervision with taking needed meds, it is up to you and your group leaders to have a responsible adult who will provide that assistance to your participant.

- Do you have a special certification that would be helpful to the Red Bird Team?

RN LPN EMT First Aid Cert.
